

FALL FROM POWER

IDIOM: TO BE REMOVED, SOMETIMES FORCEFULLY, FROM A POSITION OF POWER OR IMPORTANCE

John was a well-respected safety manager.
All the guys liked him.

John thought it would be fun to race
the power buggy during a break.

John was going fast, the power buggy tipped.
John went flying and broke his leg.

Break over.

John said, 'at least it wasn't worse.'
The next day John was fired.
It was worse.
